Understanding the convergence of business and public policy on housing financing products.

FEATURED SPEAKERS:

ANTHONY HUTCHINSON

Anthony Hutchinson is a Director of Government Relations at Freddie Mac. He has over 20 years of experience in housing public and business policy via tenures at the National Association of REALTORS (NAR) and Fannie Mae. At NAR, he spent 5 years working as a Senior Policy Representative for the Association on Financial Services issues. Prior to that, he spent 10 years with Fannie Mae creating affordable housing products, managing the manufactured housing portfolio, and building strategies to expand business into Emerging Markets.

JOHN YEN WONG

John is the Founding Chairman of the Asian Real Estate Association of America. He has served as the Chairman of Freddie Mac's Affordable Housing Advisory Council, been a member of Chase Home Finance's National Housing Advisory Council, and served as Chairman of the National Association of Realtor's Equal Opportunity and Cultural Diversity Committee. On the regulatory side, he served on the California Department of Real Estate's Advisory Commission.
